MUDA team inspects Rs. 90 crore Kabini drinking water project

Upgradation works to be completed in a year

MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, along with officials and people's representatives, inspecting Kembalu water treatment unit site today.

Mysuru, July 20 (RKB&DM)- Following directions from District Minister S.T. Somashekar and Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj to the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) to come up with an upgraded plan to supply uninterrupted water to South Western parts of Mysuru city by drawing more water from Kabini river, MUDA Chairman H.V. Rajeev, accompanied by a host of officials and people's representatives, visited Bidaragodu, Kembalu and Udbur Gate, all coming along H.D. Kote Road, this morning.

They inspected the functioning of water pumping, treatment and supply plants established there ahead of the execution of the Rs. 90 crore ambitious project that is aimed at supplying uninterrupted water to both MUDA-formed Layouts and MUDA-approved Private Layouts.

The team first visited Bidaragudu Jackwell point, which has a 180 MLD (Million Litres per Day) water pumping capacity. Out of this, only 60 MLD is being supplied to parts of Mysuru city and MUDA has planned to utilise the remaining 120 MLD for feeding water to MUDA and Private Layouts and other related uses, as suggested by the Urban Development Minister during his visit to the site a couple of days ago.

Rajeev asked the officials to prepare a comprehensive report on enhancing the existing 11 KV power station at the Jackwell site to 66 KV so that more quantity of water can be drawn from Kabini river that flows closeby to Bidaragodu.

Pointing out that only one 450 HP water pump is installed at the site, the MUDA Chairman instructed the officials to install three more pumps of 1,150 HP capacity each, which proposal will be sent to the Government for approval.

Later, Rajeev visited Kembalu water treatment unit, where he inspected its functioning. As it is a treatment unit, Rajeev advised the officials to add two more pumps of 1,250 HP capacity each to the existing one, for a faster recycling.

Thereafter, the MUDA team went to Udbur Gate where they inspected the water supply plant that feeds water to some parts of the city.

Chamundi Hill Ropeway talk again

Yogeeshwar

Mysuru, July 20 (BCT)- The State Government will go ahead with the ambitious ropeway project at Chamundi Hill amidst stiff opposition from Green groups who are up in arms against the project as they fear that the project will not only spoil the environment but also disturb the sanctity of the religious destination.

Minister for Tourism, Environment and Ecology C.P. Yogeeshwar was speaking to reporters at Talakad last evening after announcing the Gangotsava celebrations that will be organised to recall the contributions of Ganga rulers in the field of art, sculpture and literature.

"We will take up the ropeway project at Chamundi Hill in such a way that it will not spoil the atmosphere," he said while allaying the fears of environmentalists.

It may be mentioned here that on July 15, the Minister held a review meeting of his Department officials at Kumarakrupa Guest House in Bengaluru where the Chamundi Hill ropeway project was discussed along with a similar project for the world-famous Nandi Hills, which has been pending for a long time.

Yogeeshwar directed the Department officials to take up the project for building the ropeway to Nandi Hills, which has been pending since several decades after it was first mooted, to do the necessary paperwork for inviting tenders to go ahead with the work.

He also directed officials to draw a plan of action for the Chamundi Hill ropeway project.

Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning course at CIT

Ponnampet, July 20- A new engineering course in Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning (AI & ML), an allied branch of Computer Science and Engineering, is being introduced at Coorg Institute of Technology (CIT), Ponnampet, South Kodagu, from the academic year 2021-22.

Artificial Intelligence (AI) is an emerging technology that enables creating intelligent systems that can simulate human intelligence.

AI and ML opens the door to highly skilled engineers to propel humans to the 5th Industrial Revolution, said C.P. Belliappa, President, CIT and called upon the student fraternity to take advantage of the new course that is set to begin in CIT in the academic year 2021-22.

Artificial Intelligence has various applications in today's society. AI can solve complex problems efficiently in multiple disciplines, such as robotics, space exploration, healthcare, entertainment, finance, education, social media, driverless automobiles, precision agriculture, drone deliveries etc. Drones and robots are another example of this technology being increasingly used in modern warfare.

Machine Learning (ML) is a subfield of artificial intelligence, which enables machines or computer-controlled systems to learn and improve automatically through experience and by using data.

Some examples of ML are online recommender systems, Google search algorithms, Facebook/Twitter auto-friend tagging suggestions, accurate predictions based on big data, medical diagnosis, detecting credit card frauds and Alexa, the voice controlled virtual assistant that uses AI technology.

These trends in technologies have been impacting humanity like never before and offer highly challenging and rewarding opportunities.

CIT has established a Robotic Laboratory where students and faculty from all the disciplines come together to develop innovative ideas and products.

Shared trauma where people who are traumatised in similar ways by an event they go through, may often bond through it, even get enmeshed with each other romantically, sexually and otherwise. Being able to support each other feels wonderful, and can seem very much like love. Only, it really is not love in the way we would understand it. The shared experience and the feeling that this person really gets it can be very alluring, especially if others don't get it and react far less emotionally than you do. It is very easy to mistake mutual trauma survivorship and support as love.

Labelling this as love can be a mistake. What can happen is that one person heals from the trauma faster or better than the others, and then, it feels like the clouds have parted and you can see clearly now. That there are no real common values, goals or interests and not needing support leaves the bond vulnerable. Then, the person still hurting might try to pull the other back into that trauma support bond, by creating situations that cause hurt and pain so you might seek to support each other. It can get messy, painful and traumatic in itself. Let the scripts be for the movies. Our lives are different. — Mahesh Natarajan in The New Indian Express

Nasty surprise as python bites man in toilet

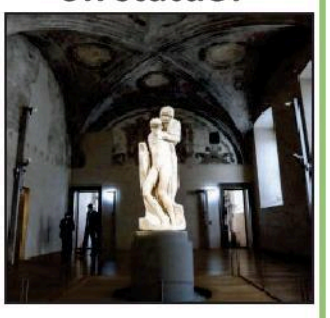
Graz: A 65-year-old man was left with minor injuries after a reticulated python bit him while he was sitting on the toilet.

He was said to have felt a "pinch in the area of his genitals" before noticing a five foot (1.6 metres) snake beneath him in the toilet bowl at his home in the Austrian city of Graz. The python is thought to have found its way into the toilet via the network of drains.

"Shortly after he sat on the toilet the Graz resident - by his own account - felt a 'pinch' in the area of his genitals," the police said in a statement.

Although the snake's suspected route into the toilet could not be confirmed, it is thought to have escaped from a neighbour's apartment. A reptile expert contacted by the emergency services removed the snake from the toilet, cleaned it and returned it to its owner.

Michelangelo's fingerprint found on statue?



London: What may be Michelangelo's thumbprint has been found on a small wax statue that he created 500 years ago.

Museum experts at London's Victoria & Albert Museum found the mark pressed onto the dark red figurine, which was a sketch for a larger unfinished marble sculpture.

Titled "A Slave," the figurine depicting a naked figure with an arm across its face was part of the Renaissance master's preparations for Pope Julius II's elaborate tomb in Rome.

"It is an exciting prospect that one of Michelangelo's prints could have survived in the wax," one of the V&A's senior curators, Peta Motture, is quoted as saying in a press release.

The sketch model is believed to have been created between 1515 and 1519.

Street lighting on Hunsur Road need of the hour

Sir,

Recently I was travelling along Hunsur Road from Yoganarasimhaswamy temple towards city. The road was pitch dark. Even with the adequate number of street-lights none were turned on or they do not work.

I have given up unreasonable greed in expecting that roads should not have potholes. But at least adequate light in the darker hours would make it safer for commuters, especially in two-wheelers. As well, the intervening traffic lights were not working despite abundant traffic on the streets.

Curiously though the portion in front of Kalamandira where there are a couple of Government offices was very well lit. I do hope that the officials of the District Administration, Traffic Police, those in charge of maintenance of the Highway look into it and make it convenient and safer at the earliest.

Low-key Bakrid amid COVID tomorrow

Festivities confined to homes; 50 percent attendance at Mosques

Mysuru, July 20 (KS) - The festival of Bakrid — festival of sacrifice or Eid-ul-Adha — will be celebrated on a low-key in city tomorrow.

For two consecutive years in this worrisome pandemic situation, festivities will be confined to homes and only 50 percent of the crowd is allowed at Mosques.

Mass prayer at Idgah Maidan is banned. On the day of Bakrid, Muslim brethren set aside a portion of their earnings, which they give away to the needy. Called "Zakat," it is given in the form of ration, meat, clothes, and anything that the poor may need to enjoy the festival.

On this day, Muslim community sacrifice goat or sheep to commemorate the sacrifice of Prophet Ibrahim, who willingly agreed to kill his son at the behest of God. But because of his devotion to God, his son was saved and a goat was sacrificed instead. The festival coincides with the Haj pilgrimage in Mecca.

Prayers are offered in the Mosques and the sacrificial meat is then distributed after the Id prayers. Special delicacies are prepared and served among family and friends on the occasion. Giving charity and feeding the poor on this occasion is also part of the tradition.

State order

Department of Minority Welfare, Haj and Waqf has issued guidelines and as per the order, not more than 50 people will be allowed to offer prayers in a mosque and wearing a mask is compulsory, adding that devotees should maintain a distance of six feet from each other while offering prayers.

Children below the age of 10 should offer Namaz at home only. Checking of temperature, sanitising or washing of hands with soap before entering the mosques has also been made mandatory. The regulations also require every person to carry their own "Janemaaz" or "Musalla" or cloth used to offer Namaz.

Shaking hands, embracing each other is also prohibited. Slaughtering animals in open spaces like parks, roads, pedestrian paths, hospitals, nursing homes and religious places, including mosques, is banned.

After tepid response, sheep sale picks up

COVID has left hundreds of farmers and livestock breeders such as sheep and goats in a fix for the second consecutive year. Sales have only picked up in the last three days after over 15 days of tepid response.

Animal breeders from Srirangapatna, Pandavapura, Arakere, T. Narasipur, Bannur, Kirugavalu and other places have brought their livestock to the city and have been doing business for about 20 days. Even the prices of sheep have shot up, say buyers. Known for its special taste owing to its fat content, the sale of Bandur breed sheep is brisk. There are other breeds like Malpura, Sonadi, Mecheri and Jamunapari also.

Some traders said, demand to purchase these animals has come down. "First of all, lockdown conditions spoiled the festive spirit last year. We were hopeful that this year would help us with profitable revenue. However, there are hardly any takers. In the previous years, we sold sheep for Rs. 20,000 to Rs. 30,000. But now people are refusing to pay Rs. 10,000 to Rs. 12,000," said a breeder from Srirangapatna.

With no designated place for the sellers to sell their livestock, Millennium Circle (LIC Circle) on Mysuru-Bengaluru Road has turned into a sheep fair (jathra) with hundreds of sheep of various breeds being tied in and around the Circle and at vacant spaces near Torchlight Parade Grounds.

A buyer told Star of Mysore that the prices of sheep have increased by 15 percent compared to last year and added that a medium size sheep weighing about 15 kgs is being sold between Rs. 13,000 and Rs. 15,000.

Sanaulla Khan, a meat trader, said that the demand for Bandur sheep is more as buyers from the city and other places are arriving to buy sheep of their choice.

Online sale

Like last year, this year too, some sheep buyers are purchasing sheep through social media platforms where images of healthy sheep are uploaded along with the contact numbers of the animal owner.

These platforms enable breeders in reaching customers from the safety of their homes. Pictures of the goats on sale are featured on the website. Interestingly, the beauty and health of the animal play an important role in selection.

The shape of horns and the size of ears also matter. Goats with certain patterns (which are considered auspicious) on their body fetch a higher price here. The online platforms provide the option to customers to visit the breeder or ask the animal to be delivered at their doorstep.

'Follow Government guidelines'

Former Corporator K.C. Shoukath Pasha, who is also the Secretary of Mysore Beedi Mazdoor Association, has urged the community members to follow the guidelines issued by the State Government and celebrate Bakrid safely. He said that the MCC has arranged vehicles to pick up animal wastes to prevent them from being dumped on roadsides and other places which may cause inconvenience to others. He has urged Muslim brethren to co-operate with the District Administration, Police and other law-enforcing authorities and celebrate the festival in a peaceful manner.

Collapsed portion of side wall at KRS Dam restored

A warning bell, says Mandya MP Sumalatha

Mysuru, July 20 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- The minor side wall collapse under the Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Reservoir pedestrian ramp path on the way from KRS Dam to Brindavan Gardens and Cauvery statue has been restored.

The collapse occurred on Sunday night and the restoration work was completed within 24 hours before any further damage and public outcry. More than 30 stones adjacent to the wall of the steps had collapsed and now new stones, cement and a fresh layer of wall has been built to restore it back to the original shape.

Additional Chief Secretary of Water Resources Department Rakesh Singh, Managing Director of Cauvery Neeravari Nigam Limited K. Jaiprakash and other officers were present when the restoration took place.

Officials have already clarified that there is no threat to the Dam as the wall collapse occurred 11.5 metres from the main body of the Dam. The pedestrian ramp as well as the vehicle ramp had been built around the same time as KRS Dam was built.

Considering the safety of the pedestrian ramp, entry of tourists was banned through this walkway and even vehicle entry was restricted. Officials said that the collapse would have occurred due to wear and tear and also heavy rain that has been lashing in the region since a week.

A red alert: Sumalatha

Meanwhile, Mandya MP Sumalatha Ambarish, who had voiced concern about the Dam safety due to rampant stone quarrying and blasting activities in nearby areas, described the incident as a 'red alert'.

In a press release, she stated that as a responsible elected representative of Mandya she had raised the issue of threat to the Dam. "I had to receive a lot of flak from various quarters and officials too claimed that there was no threat. Now that a part of the wall near the Dam has collapsed, it is a clear sign of the threat to the Dam in the coming days," she opined.

Later speaking to reporters, the Mandya MP said that it is not possible to construct such a Reservoir in the near future. "This is a warning bell. KRS may be safe now, but it should be safe in future as well. It is our responsibility to save the Dam," she said and alleged that officers were giving false information and urged the State Government to take the incident seriously.

Sabarimala: 'Virtual Q Booking'

Online portal denies right of girl children below 10 years for darshan

Kochi, July 20 (UNI)- 'Virtual Q Booking,' an online portal jointly launched by the Kerala Police and the Travancore Devaswom Board for providing easy 'darshan' and hassle-free experience during Sabarimala pilgrimage, is now denying the rights of girl children aged below 10 years.

According to parents who applied for Virtual Q Booking for darshan through the online portal for Sabarimala pilgrimage, they could secure bookings for darshan, but their girl children aged below 10 years could not make the booking as the system is not accepting their request.

"The portal denies request for booking from girls aged below 10 years, denying their religious and fundamental rights," the parents told newspersons here on Monday.

"There is absolutely no justification for denying entry to the girls below 10 years to the Lord Ayyappa Temple in Sabarimala. Such a restriction was imposed as part of the measures to prevent the spread of COVID-19 pandemic. This restriction against girls exist when the Government decides to increase the pilgrim flow from 5,000 to 10,000 everyday during the monthly opening of the temple," they felt.

A few days ago the Kerala High Court issued an order, while hearing a petition in this regard from a girl's parent, directing the authorities to ensure darshan for the girl below 10 years.

However, the authorities treat this HC order as an individual case insisting people to move the Court again separately with their case and get such an order to consider their case for their girls' entry, causing difficulties especially for economically backward parents of girl children.

But, the 'Virtual Q Booking' does not restrict the darshan for women above 50 age group.

It may be noted that women between the age group of 10 and 50 (menstruating age) are not allowed to enter the temple as part of its centuries old customs and traditions.

Deserting Lady Nicotine

[Published on 18.5.1978]

I have been smoking for the last 20 years. First cigarette I smoked was Player's Please, stolen from my uncle's tin. Myself and my chicken-hearted cousin smoked the cigarette clandestinely in our bedroom after switching off the light.

The cigarette had such rich flavour that its aroma wafted in the darkness and spied into my aunty's room. My aunty, a lady of Victorian discipline, suspected the presence of some thief or someone and began moving around the big house and finally caught the adolescent culprits. We nearly pissed in our undies at our aunt's scoldings.

However, it did not have any salutary or reformatory effect on me the incorrigible one, my cousin benefited though. Since then I have been smoking away to glory more of it while relaxing with a peg of rum or while writing.

Now these ubiquitous doctors warn me of the risk of health hazard. So I have developed a complex. It is a sort of love-hate relationship now with my Lady Nicotine. I curse her now and before-long I will be kissing her. I have given a serious thought to this matter of deserting Lady Nicotine but the day of decision has not yet come.

And I know I should not force a decision on myself. I do not want to be dictatorial on myself. So I am listening to Bhagwan Rajneesh and hoping that one day my love for Lady Nicotine will drop off on its own.— PUCK

Hiring an auto

[Published on 11.5.1978]

A society where people have lost belief in providence and fear not the laws, where moral values are thrown to winds, such a society is doomed to decay and death. Think of Sodom of yore and the mighty Roman Empire.

In a pluralistic society like ours, the moral authority, that has come to set the norm of our lives down the ages, is bound to be shaken and defied. It is here the law of the land should step in effectively to fill the vacuum and hold the society together and enable its members to lead an orderly, peaceful life. Is this happening?

I am musing on all this only because of an incident that happened to me yesterday morning in front of V.V. Police Station where I was waiting for an autorickshaw. Two autos refused to ply me to Saraswathipuram as they were city bound. Seeing the Law right in front I thought of seeking help.

Head Constable, or whoever it was with three stripes on his shoulder, was kind and very humane for all the reputation of Police. He bemoaned: Let them go Sir. I will get you another rickshaw. He immediately sent his man to fetch one. He continued: I am sorry sir, we Police are reduced to dummies. This is the saree we are wearing not uniform. If I haul up the rickshaw fellow there would be a morcha or a strike and I would be in trouble. He was eloquent enough and I got the message.

The rickshaw came, I thanked him profusely and left to labour for my food. —PUCK

Save Devaraja Market, Lansdowne Building

Signature campaign launched against demolition

Heritage expert says conservation possible

Mysuru, July 20 (PM&SSV)- Heritage enthusiasts today launched 'Save Heritage Signature Campaign' following the recent announcement made by Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj that two heritage structures — Devaraja Market and Lansdowne Building — will be demolished and rebuilt at an estimated cost of Rs.145 crore.

Prof. N.S. Rangaraju, Member, Mysuru Heritage Committee and a Historian, inaugurated the campaign in front of Lansdowne Building by putting the signature this morning.

Speaking on the occasion, he said it was possible to restore both Devaraja Market and Lansdowne Building. But the Minister seems to be in a great hurry to pull down both the iconic structures.

Byrathi Basavaraj was not aware of the fact that two cases pertaining to demolition of Devaraja Market were pending before the Karnataka High Court. While one petition was filed by traders of the Market, a few senior citizens of Mysuru have filed a Public Interest Litigation (PIL). However, no case was pending regarding demolition of Lansdowne Building, he said.

Does the Minister's statement about demolition and rebuilding of those two heritage structures not amount to contempt of court? he asked.

Venting out his anger, Prof. Rangaraju said Devaraja Market was feeding around 10,000 people daily. Over 700 shops are located inside the Market. In fact, no other city in the country has so much of heritage structures like the Mysuru city. All heritage structures except Mysore Palace and Jayalakshmi Vilas, have been constructed in two-storey style, ground and first floor. The specialty of Lansdowne building was that it has the wooden wall. It was very rare to find such buildings anywhere in city. "If you want to pull down both Devaraja and Lansdowne buildings, first remove the heritage tag and do whatever you want," he fumed.

He said Mysuru got the 'heritage city tag' from S.M. Krishna, while he was the Chief Minister of Karnataka. Krishna also created a separate Department for protection and conservation of all heritage structures across the State. The heritage structures are divided into four groups — A,B,C& D. Both Devaraja Market and Lansdowne building come under 'A' category. The citizens of Mysuru must unite and press for conservation than demolition of the heritage structures, the expert added.

K.M. Nishanth, Convener, Save Heritage Campaign, said the signature campaign will be held in front of all heritage structures for the next ten days. Then, a memorandum will be submitted to the Chief Minister to intervene and save these two buildings in the heart of the city from demolition.

Expressing disappointment over the low capacity of the water pump, Rajeev directed the officials to add three more pumps of 1,750 HP capacity each to augment water supply to the city and to come up with an exhaustive and upgraded report on the Rs. 90 crore project, which is one of the most ambitious drinking water projects to be taken up by MUDA in recent times.

Later, speaking to presspersons, Rajeev said that the 11 KV power station at Udbur Gate water supply plant will be enhanced to 66 KV. Pointing out that a technical committee comprising only experts will be formed for constant monitoring and execution of upgradation of the Kabini drinking water project, Rajeev said that the project is expected to meet the water needs of both MUDA-developed new localities and Privately formed Layouts in South Western parts of the city, which is growing by leaps and bounds in all directions over the years. He further said that the upgradation of the project will be completed in a year.

MUDA members K. Madesh, M. Lakshmidevi, M.N. Naveen Kumar and Lingaiah, MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh, SE Shankar, Corporator SBM Manju (also MUDA member), KUWS&DB Executive Engineer Chandrappa, AEE Asif Iqbal, AE Channabasavegowda, VVWW Engineers Suvarna, Bharath Kumar and other officials were part of the inspection team.

On the Heli Tourism project that has hit rough weather as more than 600 trees would be cut near the Lalitha Mahal Palace to facilitate docking station, Minister Yogeeshwar said that the Heli Tourism will kick-start from the existing airports and would soon take off in Mysuru as well with a revised plan. The Minister, however, did not elaborate.

He also spoke about the Mysuru circuit and Talakad circuit to facilitate the visit of tourists to various destinations in Mysuru and Talakad. "The circuit will be formed in such a way that all places of tourist interest in Mysuru, Kodagu and Talakad will be included so that it can prompt tourists to stay longer, boosting the economy. I will discuss the feasibility of conducting Gangotsava with different Departments like the annual Dasara in Mysuru so as to ensure comprehensive development of the infrastructure," he added.

Spend Rs.10 crore on Devaraja Market renovation: Samithi

- Utilise remaining Rs.90 crore to build a new Multi-Speciality Hospital in Mysuru
- Govt. urged to protect heritage structures

Minister Byrathi Basavaraj inspecting the Market recently.

Mysuru, July 20 (SSV)- Strongly opposing pulling down of the century-old Devaraja Market, a group of concerned citizens of Mysuru, under the banner of Devaraja Market Samrakshana Kriya Samithi, has urged the State Government to renovate the market at Rs.10 crore and utilise the remaining Rs.90 crore (out of the proposed Rs. 100 crore meant for demolition and reconstruction) on the construction of a new Multi-Speciality Hospital in Old Exhibition Grounds in the interest of citizens.

A press release, signed by Bannur K. Raju, Dr. R.D. Kumar, H.L. Yamuna and others, stated that tourists come from all over the world to see the historic Devaraja Market. Unfortunately, the elected representatives were in a great hurry to demolish the market building. This structure built in the heart of the city has found its place in the list of heritage structures.

Unfortunately, the Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj, who inspected the market recently, wants to demolish and rebuild the market at a cost of Rs.100 crore.

When the lives of hundreds of market traders and street vendors have been ruined due to Corona crisis, the Minister talks of spending Rs.100 crore on this project. It was better for the Government to spend Rs.10 crore on market renovation and the rest on building a Multi-Speciality Hospital. If this is done, the people of Mysuru will remember the Minister forever.

The Samithi also suggested the Minister to inspect the recently renovated 120-year-old Ayurveda Hospital on New Sayyaji Rao Road before taking up the works on the market.

Traffic Cops continue footpath encroachment clearance drive

Mysuru, July 20 (SBD&KS) - The Traffic Police, who have undertaken footpath encroachment clearance in city, continued the drive yesterday also. They cleared footpaths on Rave Beedhi and Gandhi Square in Devaraja Traffic limits, Chamaraja Double Road in K.R. Traffic limits, Akbar Road, Ashoka Road and New Sayyaji Rao Road in N.R. Traffic limits, Male Mahadeshwara Road in Siddarthanagar Traffic limits and on Hebbal Main Road and Valmiki Road in V.V. Puram Traffic Police limits.

The Police also issued warning to shopkeepers not to stock items on footpaths and got them cleared immediately. A few shopkeepers, who had put up name boards and advertisement boards on footpaths were also cleared making way for pedestrians.

Some shopkeepers had constructed walls and sheds by encroaching footpath. Notices were issued to them to clear the same in a day. DCP (Crime and Traffic) M.S. Geetha Prasanna warned the shopkeepers that action would be taken against them if they do not clear the footpath on their own.

Fifteen cases were registered against those who had encroached footpaths and a report has been submitted to the Court. Also, cases were registered against 15 persons under Motor Vehicle Act for parking their vehicles on footpath and causing inconvenience to pedestrians. A total of Rs. 5,100 spot fines were collected from offenders and notices served to 58 persons in this regard.

Dr. Ashwathnarayan

Bengaluru, July 20 (SSV)- All the professional courses including engineering will also be taught in Kannada across the State starting from this academic year and translation works of the curriculum has begun, said Deputy Chief Minister and Higher Education Minister Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan.

The NEP stresses on providing professional education in regional languages and accordingly, Governments will encourage measures to realise the ambition of the policy, he opined.

"Our regional language Kannada should also flourish correspondingly as technology and innovation progress and it should exist in all spheres. The NEP will not allow outsiders to enforce other languages on us. The courses and curriculum will be designed by our own universities and subject experts, the Minister said.

Lakshmi Talkies: Unknown Facts

By Shyam Sundar Vattam

I am not emotive. We ran it as a business house and nothing else. Yet, we miss her because of our long association with her over five decades." This was the instant reaction of C.S. Subramanian, a partner in Lakshmi Talkies, following rains of questions from media persons wanting to know the reasons for closing down one of the oldest cinema halls of Mysuru.

"The senior partners are catching up with age. The current generation of partners are no longer interested in running this venture with the mushrooming of multiplexes, movies on mobile phones and release of new movies on OTT platform. Gone are the days of people coming to theatres to watch the movies of their favourite stars. The COVID-19 pandemic since February 2020 has put a permanent lock to our Talkies."

In a Walk-the-Talk with Star of Mysore, Subramanian shared some of the interesting incidents attached to Lakshmi theatre for fifty years. According to him, this theatre originally belonged to Balendu Shah of Mumbai and was opened on April 15, 1949. Subsequently, it was purchased by his father, C. Srikantan and K. Ramarao of Bengaluru, in partnership. It was re-opened on April 24, 1970 with Kannada movie 'Hasiru Torana' starring Dr. Raj Kumar and Bharathi.

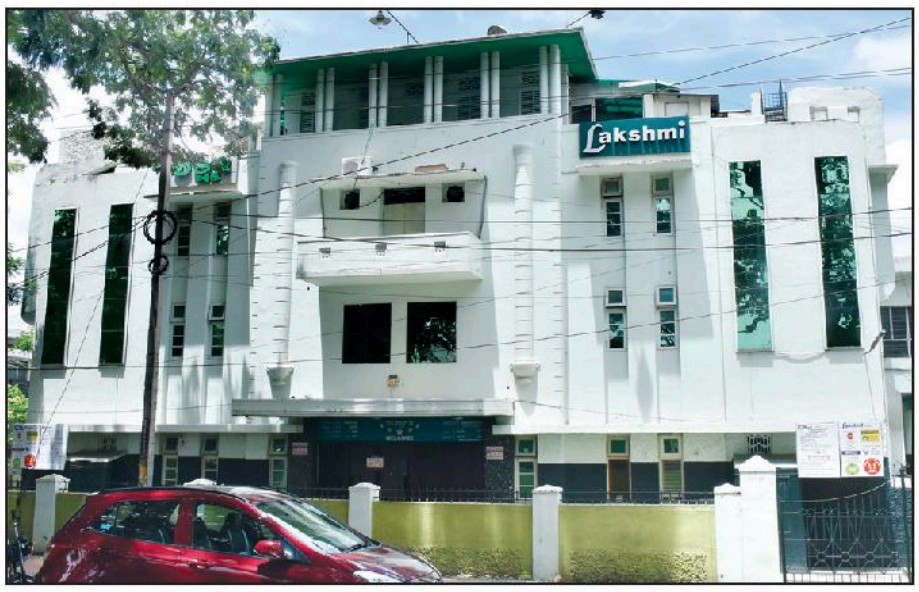
On the day of inauguration, the entire theatre was decorated with 'Hasiru Torana' (green mango leaves) and a festival-like atmosphere prevailed in the entire area. People were most happy because they had got yet another cinema hall in city. After six years of successful running, the theatre was closed for renovation. The old cinema projector that was in use since 1949 was given retirement. A new projector and the sound system were installed. It was re-opened to public in 1978.

ABOUT CURTAIN UP SONG

"Since 1978, we had a few shlokas from Sri Lakshmi Ashttothara. In 1978, I listened to an English music that attracted me very much. It had beautiful music best suited for tapping. I bought LP and started using it as a curtain up song. It was continued till May 13, 2021 — the day of closing down the talkies permanently. Every cinema talkies had a different tune for curtains up but among them our music had attracted many people during those days."

FOUR SECTIONS

"Another uniqueness of our talkies had been four sections. During those days we had a separate section in balcony with recliners and another section. In the ground floor, we had a row of seats popularly known as 'Second Class' and the first four to five rows as 'Front Class'



(popularly known as Gandhi Class). Subsequently, all the sections were removed and had only two classes — balcony and ground floor."

BIG NAMES

"The big names of Kannada, Tamil and Telugu film-world have visited our theatre. When 'Raja Nanna Raja', a popular Kannada movie, starring Dr. Raj Kumar and Bharathi, completed 25 weeks, the movie director, Bhakthavatsalam wanted the function to be held in our theatre. At that time, Dr. Rajanna had come to our theatre for a brief period. I had the rare distinction of receiving him and spending a few minutes with him.

"Dr. Vishnuvardhan, aka Sampathkumar, a boy from 'Namma Mysuru', had come to our theatre, when the Kannada superhit 'Bandhana' completed 22 weeks. He was a product of Gopalaswamy Shishuvihara and used to visit our theatre whenever he visited Mysuru on shooting or personal work.

"Rebel Star M.H. Ambarish, another native of Mysuru, was coming to theatre to see the audience response to his new releases. Others who had visited our theatre included former CM of Andhra Pradesh, N.T. Rama Rao and former CM of Tamil Nadu, J. Jayalalithaa. Late Jayalalithaa was an ardent devotee of Goddess Chamundeshwari and used to come to Mysuru regularly. One day, we received a telephone call to inform that 'Jayalalithaa' madam wants to visit the theatre. Most of the stars used to visit in the evening to avoid the public glare. They were coming directly to my chamber or to the projector room, and then go away. Local lads, Yash and Darshan Thoogudeepa have visited our theatre several times."

SORRY, NO PICTURES

"Unfortunately, we have not preserved photographs of noted film personalities visiting our theatre. We did not understand the importance of those pictures. We need to search the old cupboard or the cupboard for those memories. Usually, press photographers used to come and take pictures of any event but we did not see its need."

WEEPING QUEENS

"When there were not much of cinema halls in city, we were screening women-oriented movies to attract lady audience. Women will throng the cinema halls if any Kannada picture has sentiments like mother-in-law torturing daughter-in-law; such movies used to be filled with women audience. We did not find it any difficulty in handling that audience. Certain lady Kannada actors were known for bringing tears in the eyes of women audience and such movies were in great demand to attract the crowd from rural areas."

TAMIL MORNING, KANNADA AFTERNOON

"Till 1970s, not much of Kannada movies were produced in Karnataka. At that time, we were screening the movies of all languages. When Crazy Star Ravichandran-starring 'Ramachari' was ready for release, we were screening the original movie in Tamil. Ravi asked whether it is okay to screen his movie when the original movie was screened in the morning. Interestingly, the Tamil movie ran for 50 days and the Kannada movie for 100 days. Prior to 1970, limited number of Kannada movies were released. So, the city theatres were screening non-Kannada movies. But this trend changed after 70s. It also changed the fortunes of many cinema halls."

TICKETS IN ADVANCE

"The system of issuing tickets in advance was started from my theatre. The movies of Dr. Raj Kumar, Dr. Vishnuvardhan, Ambarish and Ravichandran had a great demand. The fans were sleeping near the ticket counters previous night to see the movie 'first day' 'first show'. To avoid crowd, they started advance booking of tickets; issuing tickets for the shows of two to three days later."

FIRST MOVIE, LAST MOVIE

"While Dr. Raj Kumar's 'Hasiru Torana' was the first Kannada movie to be screened on April 24, 1970, the last movie was 'Love Mocktail.' There were no takers for 'Love Mocktail' due to new actors and actresses. Upon insistence from Producers, this movie was screened. Initially, there was not much of response from the audience. But it became hit and ran packed house for five to six weeks before the announcement of nationwide curfew due to outbreak of Coronavirus.

"After months of struggle with the State Government on re-opening of single screen theatres, permission was given to open with 50 percent capacity. Accordingly, theatre was re-opened with Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) announced by the Government. For the morning show, there were four persons, followed by two for the matinee show. None turned up for other shows. This had never happened in the history of Lakshmi Theatre.

"On that day, we decided to close down the theatre. The salary of staff members was settled and they were told to look out for new jobs."

ASHA workers expose child sale case in Nanjangud

Unable to raise the kid, woman sold the baby to a couple in Hassan

Nanjangud, July 20 (RS& BCT)- ASHA workers, who had been to supply nutritional food to a child in Nanjangud, detected a child sale case where the mother, unable to raise the child, had sold it off to her relatives in Hassan. The one-month-old child has been rescued now and a Police complaint has been lodged.

The woman, a resident of Chamalapura, gave birth to a male child a month back and as per the Government policy of supplying nutritional food to prevent malnourishment in children, ASHA workers visited the woman's house for food supply. The ASHA workers, who had the child birth in their records, questioned the woman about the child when the latter replied that the child had died last week.

Unconvinced by her evading replies, ASHA workers asked the woman about the cremation details and here too the woman fumbled for answers. Later, the ASHA workers informed the Child Development Project Officer (CDPO) and also the Child Welfare Committee (CWC). A Police complaint was lodged at Nanjangud Town Police Station and the woman was questioned about the child's whereabouts.

Child rescued

During questioning, the woman told the Police that she had given the child to her relatives. Based on the information, a Police team visited Holenarasipura taluk in Hassan district and brought the child back to Mysuru. The kid has been handed over to Sthree Seva Nikethana Ashram in Mysuru.

After the child was rescued, the Police have stated that an organised child-selling racket was flourishing in Mysuru and surrounding areas and certain private hospitals too are involved in the cases and they facilitate the sale to childless couples as the money involved here is huge, they warned. This particular woman had given birth at a private hospital in Udayagiri, Mysuru and not at any Government Hospital, the Police said.

CDPO to submit report

Meanwhile, Nanjangud Taluk Panchayat Administrator Dr. Krishnaraju has directed CDPO Kavitha to submit a detailed report on the incident. The issue came up for discussion at the Taluk Panchayat KDP (Karnataka Development Programme) meeting held yesterday.

CDPO Kavitha told the meeting that the woman's husband had passed away a few months back and unable to bring up the child, she had sold it off to a childless couple at a village in Holenarasipura. The incident came to light as the woman had lied to ASHA workers.

As per the statements given by the local residents, three years back too the woman had claimed that her baby died before birth. A Police complaint had been lodged then and the investigation is still under progress, the CDPO replied. Dr. Krishnaraju asked the CDPO to closely follow up on the two cases and ensure that all the accused are brought to book.

Students demand holding of exams as per UGC guidelines

Mysuru, July 20 (PM&SSV)- Students of various colleges staged a protest under the banner of All India Democratic Students' Organisation (AIDSO) against the State Government's decision to hold two semester examinations (odd number semester exams) for all Degree, Engineering, Diploma and Post Graduate courses in a span of just one month time. The protest was staged in front of the DC's office in city yesterday.

The protesters said the University Grants Commission (UGC) has issued guidelines only to conduct final semester exams compulsorily and not other semesters. Valuation must be done on the basis of internals or previous semesters.

The State Government, Universities and Technical Colleges must follow it in the interest of students, teachers and the general public. Holding other semester examinations amounts to contempt as the Supreme Court has directed to hold only final semester examination.

The protest was led by Subhas Joyappa, Aasia Begum, Sevanth Tejas, Manoj, Dhruva, Yashwanth and Vinay.

Vidyavardhaka, Vidya Vikas and other college students took part in the protest.

Activists urge Centre to hold Bank Exams in Kannada

Mysuru, July 20 (PM&SSV)- Kannada activists, led by noted littérateurs Dr. C.P. Krishnakumar (CPK) and Prof. K.S. Bhagawan, staged a protest in front of the DC's office in city yesterday, urging the Government to allow writing Bank Exams in Kannada.

The agitators contended that Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has allowed writing Bank Exams in regional languages. But the Union Government was not implementing that order and showing its anti-Kannada attitude. Over 3,000 posts are vacant in 11 Banks including Canara Bank. Since the candidates are allowed to write only in English and Hindi languages, the Kannadiga candidates were denied of job opportunities. Unfortunately, 25 BJP MPs from Karnataka have maintained a stoic silence on this issue. Even Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman was reluctant to get this approved at the Government level, they added.

Mysuru Hotel Owners' Association President C. Narayanagowda, social worker Raghuram Vajpayee, former District President of Kannada Sahitya Parishat Maddikere Gopal, Mysuru District Kannada Activists Association President B.A. Shivashankar and others were present.

Misuse of Kaniyara Samaja hostel site

Samaja AO lodges criminal case

Names 16 former Administrative Board members in his complaint

Mysuru, July 20- Alleging that the former Administrative Board of Kaniyara Seva Samaja had misused the site allotted to it (Samaja) for the construction of a student hostel on Kalidasa Road in Mysuru's Jayalakshmipuram, by illegally leasing out the site for monetary gains, Senior Inspector at the office of the Joint Registrar of Co-operative Societies at Bengaluru T.C. Vijayakumar, who is also the Kaniyara Seva Samaja Administrative Officer (AO), has lodged a criminal case against 16 members who were part of the Board in the past.

In his complaint lodged at Chamarajapet Police Station at Bengaluru, Vijayakumar maintained that illegal leasing out of the Samaja site on Kalidasa Road in Jayalakashmipuram in Mysuru and misappropriation of money by members of the former Administrative Board of the Samaja had led to reclamation of site by MUDA (Mysuru Urban Development Authority).

Following the complaint, the Chamarajapet Police have registered a case against the accused under sections 187, 188, 403, 406, 420 and 34 of IPC on July 14, it is learnt.

WORD OF THE DAY

Nonplus

Pronunciation: nahn-PLUS.
Meaning: To cause to be at a loss as to what to say, think, or do : perplex.
Origin: Does nonplus perplex you? You aren't alone. Some people believe the non in nonplus means "not," and assume that to be nonplussed is to be calm and poised, but in fact the opposite is true. If you are among the baffled, the word's history may clarify things. In Latin, non plus means "no more." When nonplus debuted in English in the 16th century, it was used as a noun synonymous with quandary. Someone brought to a nonplus had reached an impasse in an argument and could say no more. In short time, people began applying nonplus as a verb, and today it is often used in participial form with the meaning "perplexed" (as in "Joellen's strange remark left us utterly nonplussed").
Example: The student's unexpected about-face during the class discussion nonplussed the teacher.

THE ODD WORD

Napoo

To destroy; to kill.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Hit the books

Meaning: To study.
Origin: In this phrase, hit means to start or to begin. Although no one knows the origin of the idiom "hit the books", it seems to be related to early idioms such as "hit the trail," which cowboys used when starting out on a journey. It's clear that this saying is a fairy contemporary one, probably from the mid-20th century.
Example: "Danny was in danger of failing, so before his last math test he left the show early to go home and hit the books."

Gujarat's Garbha Dance at Urban Haat tomorrow

Mysuru, July 20- The artisans, who have come for the ongoing Gujarat Utsav at JSS Urban Haat organised in association with INDEXT-C, a Government of Gujarat organisation, will be presenting traditional Gujarati dance 'Garba' tomorrow (July 21) between 6.30 pm and 9 pm.

D.M. Shukla, Executive Director and R.R. Jadav, Manager, INDEXT-C, have made an appeal to craft-loving people of Mysuru to visit the event and motivate the artisans by purchasing their artefacts, which will provide much-needed livelihood to the artisans. And also enjoy the Garba Evening on July 21. Over 50 artistes will be performing for ten different tunes.

Garba is a dance form originated in Gujarat, performed during Navarathri — a 9-day festival of Goddess Durga. Garba dance is usually performed in a circle around a big lamp or the statue of Goddess Shakti. Garba is often confused with Dandiya, which is another dance form of Gujarat performed during Navarathri.

The major difference between the two dance forms is that Garba is performed in circular movements with hands and feet, while Dandiya is played with colourful sticks.

Another perspective on the symbolic form of Garba is that as the dancers move around in circles making circular movements with their hands and feet, it represents the circle of life, which moves from life to death to rebirth, leaving only Goddess Durga unmoved, unchanged and invincible.

While the dancers perform in colourful costumes to the rhythm of a dhol or a drum, the men and women look vibrant and full of life in their attires. Women wear Chaniya Choli, a traditional Gujarat dress with three piece outfit and men who perform wear Kediyu, a short round kurta along with Kafni pyjamas along with Pagdi on their head. The modern day Garba is actually a fusion of Dandiya Raas and Garba. The dance is famous not only in India but also in US, UK and Canada.

TOKYO GAMES (July 23-August 8)

Indian tennis stars leave for Tokyo

Hyderabad, July 20- Indian tennis stars Sania Mirza and Ankita Raina have left for Tokyo to take part in the upcoming Olympics. Sania and Ankita were both seen at the Hyderabad Airport yesterday, the Sports Authority of India (SAI) confirmed.

Earlier this month, Sania Mirza and Ankita Raina were confirmed to represent India in Women's Doubles at the Tokyo Games after entries were officially announced. Sania will be representing India for the fourth time in Olympics when she features at the Tokyo Games, slated to get underway from July 23, while Ankita Raina will be making her debut at the showpiece event.

Indian men's tennis player Sumit Nagal has also qualified for the upcoming Tokyo Olympics on the basis of withdrawals in the Singles event and will be joining the pair in Japan.

So far, the first batch of Indian athletes for the Tokyo Olympics have landed in the Japanese capital. The boxing team, led by the legendary Mary Kom, badminton ace P.V. Sindhu, archers Atanu Das and Deepika Kumari, along with the men's and women's hockey teams, reached Tokyo on Sunday.

Till now, athletes and support staff of 13 different disciplines — badminton, archery, hockey, judo, swimming, weightlifting, gymnastics, shooting, boxing, rowing, sailing, weightlifting, and TT — have reached Japan.

The remaining contingent, including wrestling and athletics teams, are expected to join them soon.

AITA condemns Rohan Bopanna, Sania Mirza tweets on Qualification

New Delhi, July 20- All India Tennis Association (AITA) yesterday condemned tweets by tennis stars Rohan Bopanna and Sania Mirza over qualification of players for Tokyo Olympics.

"Twitter comments by Rohan Bopanna and then Sania Mirza are inappropriate, misleading and it appears, without knowledge of the rules. They should have checked the rule book of ITF regarding qualifications, something that Divij Sharan seems to have done while writing to TOPS," AITA said in a statement.

"Rohan Bopanna could not have qualified as per ITF Rules. Therefore Sania Mirza's tweet is also baseless and coming from a player of her stature, is condemnable," the statement further read.

Bopanna had, earlier on Monday, tweeted that AITA "misled" players by saying that Bopanna and Sumit Nagal had a chance at qualification for the Games.

"ITF has never accepted an entry for Sumit Nagal & myself. ITF was clear that no changes were allowed after the nomination deadline (22nd June) unless Injury/Illness. AITA has mislead the players, government, media and everyone else by stating we still have a chance," Bopanna had tweeted.

Responding to Bopanna's tweet, Sania said: "Whaaattt??? If this is true then it''s absolutely ridiculous and shameful..by this it also means that we have sacrificed a very good shot at a medal in the mixed doubles if you and I would have played as planned. We were both told that you and Sumit''s names have been given."

Sania Mirza & Rohan Bopanna played in Mixed Doubles at Rio Olympics.

Questioning Bopanna's accusations, the AITA statement further read: "Is Rohan Bopanna suggesting that we should have entered his name with Sumit Nagal one month ago, when Sumit's ranking was in the 140s and Divij was at 78. The comment by Rohan Bopanna, who is a senior player is due to lack of knowledge and without understanding the facts, rules of ITF and is unwarranted and totally misleading.

AITA called out Sania's comments as "most inappropriate".

"Even the comments of Sania Mirza are most inappropriate. Ranking of Rohan with Divij or Sumit Nagal were not good enough for qualification. So how did we lose an opportunity to win medals either in men's doubles or mixed doubles," AITA said.

"This tweet and statement of Mr. Bopanna is condemned unequivocally."
